

Table 1A and 1B. Robberies Before and After the Gang was Formed.

Table 1A - Before 9 April 1866. Before operating as a gang		Table 1B - 9 April 1866 - 6 March 1867. After operating as a gang.
Time Period	92 mths	Time Period	11 mths
Number of Suspected Robberies with a court case	13	Number of Suspected Robberies with a court case	0
Number of Warrants for robbery that resulted in a court case.	17	Number of Warrants for robbery that resulted in a court case.	0
Number of Suspected Robberies with no court case.	39	Number of Suspected Robberies with no court case.	55
Number of Warrants for robbery with no court case.	9	Number of Warrants for robbery with no court case.	4
Total Suspected Robberies	52	Total Suspected Robberies	55
Court Results: 1 Bound Over, no consequences. 5 Dismissed ¹ 3 Discharged ²	1 Fined 2 Found guilty 1 Not Guilty 4 Warrant cancelled	Results: No court cases for robbery.

Table 7. Robberies Before & After the Arrival of Superintendent Orridge.

Robberies Before Supt. Orridge arrived. July 1856 to February 1864. (92 months)		Robberies After Supt. Orridge arrived. February 1864 to March 1867. (39 months)
Number of Suspected Robberies with a court case.	9	Number of Suspected Robberies with a court case.	4
Number of Warrants for robbery resulting in a court case.	11	Number of Warrants for robbery resulting in a court case.	6
Number of Suspected Robberies with no court case.	4	Number of Suspected Robberies with no court case.	90
Number of Warrants for robbery with no court case.	3	Number of Warrants for robbery with no court case.	10
Total Suspected Robberies	13	Total Suspected Robberies	94
Court Results: 1 Bound Over - no consequences 3 Dismissed 3 Discharged	2 Gaol - one a mis-trial 1 Not Guilty 1 illegal riding	Court Results: 1 Dismissed 1 Discharged 4 Warrants cancelled

1 Dismissed, in the 1860s, meant there was no need for a trial as there was no convictable evidence.

2 Discharged, in 1860s, meant a sufficient case could not be made to ensure a conviction. It appears that these terms were used interchangeably.