Offenders were masked and wearing red & brown blankets could only be ID'd by height.

3.15	§§ 25 Jan. 1866	Robbery at Gundaroo. Two stores, Fraser & Affleck, and a Post Office.  Tommy, Pat and Bill.	Empire , 13 Feb 1866. From the description given in NSWPG 31 Jan. 1866 they can only be identified as Tommy and Pat based on hair colour and height. Masked. Later guns stolen from this robbery were found hidden in the scrub at Gundaroo. Therefore unlikely to be the boys. One of the rings found on Pat when he was killed was claimed by Arthur Affleck, Gundaroo NSWPG 15.8.1866 p 302. This is a very long way for the police to take the ring. Affleck would no doubt claim it anyhow. QA&GA 1 Feb. 1866, states that the robbers in their search seemed quite at home, one of them especially directing the other where to look for particular articles, and from this circumstance it is inferred that they are no strangers who have committed this outrage.

3.19	§§ 7 Feb. 1866	Goulburn Mail attempted robbery	Tommy	QA & GA, 15 Feb. 1866. Police had heard that Tommy was going to stop the Goulburn Mail and so on Wednesday morning it was escorted by two policemen. When near Towrang a suspicious looking man on a black horse was seen in the bush near the road. He rode off when he saw the police. It is thought that this is one of the parties engaged in the robbery on Thursday (8 Feb.1867). Tommy owned a black horse and so it must be him.

3.20	§§ 8 Feb. 1866	Yass Mail at Mutbilly NSWPG 14 Feb.1866 p52 Empire , 13 February 1866.	Tommy plus two others.	The NSWPG 14 February 1866, does not name the offenders. The Empire , from the Goulburn Argus named Tommy and gang. The description of the thieves does not match the gang. Goulburn Herald &amp; Chronicle , 14 February 1866 states that Thomas & George Coyle and George Humphries were remanded to the 10 Feb.1866 on a charge of robbing the Yass Mail on the 8 Feb.1866. 	22 Feb. 1866	Robbery at Mick O'Connell's	Mick was away form home. His son Cornelius reported the robbery at Ballalaba police station.	The goods were found near the river. Were they goods from Foxlow or legitimate goods for the household at the hotel? The police thought the latter and did not check with Foxlow. Empire , 27 Feb. 1866.
2.7 2.8 2.9	§§ 23 Feb. 1866	Robbery, imprisoned police Araluen & Mudmelong. 8 pm - robbed Edward Eaton of Crown Flat, Araluen: 10.30 pm robbed Wm Morris, Mudmelong.	Tommy, Tom, Pat, Johnny, William Bruce. QA&GA 22 Mar. 1866 says probably but not certain Clarke, Berriman and a third person. Red blanket covering heads and reaching to their middle, holes cut for eyes. Ellen O’Connell passed halves of bank notes from this robbery, but was not questioned about where the notes came from in her depositions. Despite the lack of evidence or an arrest, Smith, p 260, claims it was the boys.
3.24	§§ 22 Mar. 1866	Robbery at Bunyan Hotel.	Tommy, Pat, Robert Kinchela & Andrew Tyrie. masked Robbers at Bunyan & Rosebrook. Bill Berriman not suspected NSWPG 28 March 1866, p 108.	After seemingly accusing the boys Smith does concede, in a brief sentence that no warrants out as not positively ID according to the NSWPG, 18 Apr. 1866. The Age , Melbourne, 4 Apr. 1866, reports their faces were covered at Bunyan and Rosebrook (from the Monaro Mercury ).
3.25	§§ 22 Mar. 1866	Robbery of Rosebrook Station.	Tom, Pat, Andrew Tyrie & Robert Kinchela. (suspected by the police)	NSWPG 28 March 1866. Robert Vincent was the name of the tutor Michael O'Connell employed for his children. NSWPG 21 Nov. 1866, p410. A search of the serial number in the NSWPG only returned one entry, that of Robert Vincent's, indicating he was not fencing stolen property. Indeed it would be rather stupid to report it if it had previously been stolen.
	7 Nov. 1866	Murder of Billy Noonang.	Old John Clarke.	He was sick with influenza and high fever and desponding in his mind. NSWPG, 18 July 1866. John died in gaol on 7 Nov.1866, before his trial.

There were 29 warrants (colour code - green and brown) issued before the gang was formed on the 9 April 1866. Twenty-five or 86% did not result in a fine or gaol term. After the gang was formed on the 9 April 1866 there were 14 warrants issued. One of these resulted in a gaol term and two were hanged.

Members were accused of 61 crimes with no warrants or court cases from 1856 – 1867. These crimes were the result of creative thinking by the newspapers and the police.
